Meals
Meals and beverages on cruise are included. On land meals are half board (breakfast and dinner) daily. Lunch is not included, although time for a brief lunch break will be provided. At such times all food and beverage purchases are the sole responsibility of the participant. Missed meals (for whatever reason), substitution meals, and additional food and all beverage purchases at scheduled meals, room service, food items in store in the room, etc. are the sole responsibility of the participant. Snacks or meals at any time on the tour or in transit to the tour are the participant’s responsibility. Water will be provided on the Tour Bus in Israel.

Trip Payment, Cancellation & Refund
$500 per person deposit, and payment in full is due by March 27th. Cancellations in writing and confirmed by phone (512-396-3799) received on or before February 1st will receive a full refund less $100 cancellation per person and administrative fee. Cancellations in writing after this date will be subject to refunds based on the refund policies of the respective airline carriers and ground operators to which payments for services have been paid. In most cases a percentage of monies may be debited by these providers. Interruption of trip for any reason will be subject to regulations imposed by respective providers. World of the Bible Tours, and Trans-Global Travel assume no responsibility for refunds on any unused portion of the trip.

Tips for Services and Porterage
Tips to the bus driver, the tour guide, hotel staff, restaurants and miscellaneous people are included in the package price. Generally this tip amount, which is specified on the Registration form, can be paid with your final payment on April 1st as Dr. Price tips for the whole group. Porterage is provided for one bag only between designated carriers upon arrival at foreign destination hotels. Excess luggage should follow the recommended tip schedule of $1 per bag. Each participant is responsible for their own luggage to and from tour arrival and home departure airports. Weight allowances vary with airlines and each participant is responsible for obtaining correct information from their carrier and for paying excess pounds. Carriers are now typically charging $100 for the second checked bag either way.
